Dear Superintendent Steve Mietz:

The Humboldt County Board of Supervisors would like to congratulate you on receiving the National Service Director's Award as Superintendent of the Year for Natural Resource Stewardship.

The Board would like to recognize that you have gone above and beyond in your duties toward resource protection and acknowledge your efforts in implementing landscape scale watershed conservation efforts with park partners and local tribes. Furthermore, your leadership and close partnership with the Yurok Tribe was instrumental in the 2022 condor release. Lastly, thank you for playing an instrumental role in the numerous other park projects that minimizing the impact of the U.S. Highway 101 bypass to the old growth redwoods.

Sincerely,

Virginia Bass, Chair
Humboldt County Board of Supervisors
