Woody Debris v2019
No: 1-23EX-00780-HUM

Letter of Acceptance

This letter acknowledges acceptance of your "Notice of Exemption" per Title 14, California Code of Regulations, Section 1038(a), (b), (c), (c)(6), (d), (e), (f), 1038.3, 1038.5, and 1038.6, from plan preparation and submission requirements (PRC 4581) and from the completion and stocking report requirements (PRC 4585 and 4587).

This Exemption EXPIRES September 20, 2024. Timber operations shall comply with all operational provisions of the Forest Practice Act and District Forest Practice Rules. Note: in-lieu practices, exceptions to rules, and alternative practices are not allowed.

Regulatory rules may differ if the exemption is in a county with special rules or within a Special Treatment Area. The Timberland Owner and the Licensed Timber Operator are advised to be aware of the rules for the specific location of the exemption.

Other Agency Considerations:

- Regional Water Quality Control Boards (Regional Boards) regulate waste discharges from timber harvest activities. The Regional Boards may have special requirements for timber harvesting conducted under this exemption. Please contact your local Regional Water Control Board with any questions regarding compliance with the California Water Code.
- Department of Fish and Wildlife (DFW) may require notification if the timber operations will substantially divert or obstruct the natural flow of, or substantially change or use any material from the bed, channel, or bank of any river, stream, or lake. Information on the Lake and Streambed Alteration Program and other DFW programs can be found at the following internet address: <https://www.wildlife.ca.gov/Conservation/Environmental-Review>

On-site inspection will be conducted by local CAL FIRE Unit Forest Practice Inspectors to evaluate compliance with all the provisions of the Forest Practice Act and Rules. For questions regarding the above referenced exemption, please contact the appropriate regional office listed above or contact the local CAL FIRE Unit for your County.

Sincerely,

Eric Hedge, RPF 3010

Timber Salvage Operations

Do I need a Water Board permit?

The purpose of this flyer is to make you aware of the water quality regulations and permitting that apply now that you have decided to conduct post-fire timber salvage activities on your property.

Now that your project has been authorized by the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CAL FIRE), additional agency permits may be required or may automatically apply to you, including from one of California's nine Regional Water Quality Control Boards (RWQCBs).

www.waterboards.ca.gov/waterboards_map.html

Regions 1, 5 and 6 have permits that your project may be eligible for or are automatically subject to.

Wildfires and Water Quality

While impacts to the environment from wildfires can be significant, impacts can be positive or negative, and this is especially relative to the health of streams, rivers, and wetlands. Following a wildfire, the landscape can be extremely vulnerable to additional impacts from land use activities, including timber salvage operations and road and watercourse crossing management.

On private lands, landowners may choose to harvest merchantable timber following a wildfire in order to salvage the value of burned trees before they degrade. While conducting timber salvage operations, landowners, their consulting registered professional foresters (RPFs) and contracted licensed timber operators (LTOs) must all be aware of the regulations that apply to their activities and ensure that operations are conducted in a manner that is protective of the environment, including water quality.

Water Quality Regulations

The RWQCBs are the primary water-pollution control and prevention agencies for the state. In that role, the RWQCBs issue permits, conduct inspections, and in some circumstances take enforcement actions to address activities that cause or may cause pollutants to discharge into streams, lakes, or wetlands, or impact riparian vegetation.

To protect yourself, your property and the environment, you should work closely with your consulting RPF and LTO to ensure that post-fire salvage activities conform with all applicable regulations and permitting!

We encourage landowners, RPFs, and LTOs to contact their RWQCB's Forest Activities Program for guidance on applicable water quality regulations and permits. A list of the RWQCBs can be found at the following web address:

DROUGHT & WATER DRAFTING

California Department of Fish and Wildlife

ARE YOU DRAFTING WATER FOR YOUR TIMBER HARVESTING OR VEGETATION MANAGEMENT PROJECT?

Californians are facing the second year of historic drought. Drought conditions in California's streams have the potential to affect aquatic species' movements and survival. The California Department of Fish and Wildlife (CDFW) helps landowners avoid impacts to fish, wildlife, native plants, and sensitive habitats, including California's rivers, streams, and lakes (waterbodies).

We encourage you to consult with CDFW BEFORE you begin your project. Failure to notify CDFW of any substantial diversion or obstruction of the natural flow of or a substantial change or use of any material from the bed, bank, or channel of any river, stream, or lake may result in a violation of the Fish and Game Code (see sidebar). See the next page for a preparation checklist.

Applicable Fish and Game Codes

§ 86: "Take" means to hunt, pursue, catch, capture, or kill, or attempt to hunt, pursue, catch, capture, or kill.

§ 1600 et seq. (LSA Program): Requires an entity to notify CDFW, and if required, obtain an Agreement, before substantially diverting or obstructing the natural flow of a river, stream, or lake; substantially changing or using any material from the bed, channel, or bank of a river, stream, or lake; or depositing or disposing debris, waste, or other material containing crumbled, flaked, or ground pavement where it may pass into any river, stream, or lake.

Preparation Checklist

Before you begin your water drafting project, consider the checklist below to help determine if it may have the potential to affect fish and wildlife resources. CDFW is available to help answer these questions and provide assistance.

- Have you assessed current water flow and water quality conditions at each drafting location?
- Will your water drafting activities allow for enough water to flow downstream during drafting so fish and other aquatic species can survive?
- Do you have an alternative water source or dust abatement strategy if you must stop drafting or there is not enough water for drafting? These may include:
 - dust abatement products
 - road base materials
 - alternative water sources such as municipal water
- What methods will you use to determine when to stop drafting to avoid potential affects to fish and wildlife? This may include using:
 - an instream staff gauge
 - a measuring stick with water level markers
 - directly measuring flow
 - drafting logs or other ways to determine when drafting should stop
- Will your water drafting project result in a substantial diversion or obstruction of the natural flow of the water or change/alter the bed, bank or channel of any river, stream, or lake?
- Will construction or modifying your drafting site require vegetation trimming or removal, or ground-disturbing operations to access the site, potentially affecting wildlife?

NOTE! It is important for landowners, Registered Professional Foresters, Licensed Timber Operators, utility companies, or anyone drafting water to know what CDFW permits may be required. Even if you are working under a CAL FIRE Permitted Project, California Fish and Game Code must still be followed. Contact CDFW if you have any questions or to start a consultation. Applicable Fish and Game Codes

§ 2050 et seq. (CESA):

Prohibits unauthorized take of species listed or a candidate for listing under CESA.

§§ 5650 and 5652: Prohibits depositing in, permitting to pass into, or placing where it can pass into a water of the state any substance or material deleterious to fish, plant life, mammals, or bird life (§ 5650), or garbage, rubbish, litter, refuse, waste, and debris, among other materials (§ 5652).

§ 5901: Prohibits construction or maintenance of any device that prevents, impedes, or tends to impede upstream or downstream fish passage.

§ 5937: Requires the owner of a dam or other artificial obstruction to allow sufficient water at all times to pass over, around, or through the dam, to keep fish below the dam in good condition.
