Chief Day,

I am writing on behalf of the Fortuna Police Employee's Association to express our wholehearted support and enthusiasm for your participation in the upcoming FBI National Academy. It is with immense pride that we, the members of the Fortuna Police Employee's Association, unanimously support your attendance at this prestigious program.

Your dedication, leadership, and commitment to the Fortuna Police Department have been a source of inspiration to us all. Your unwavering determination to enhance your knowledge and skills through the FBI National Academy demonstrates your relentless pursuit of excellence in law enforcement. This opportunity will undoubtedly expand your horizons, enrich your capabilities, and empower you to serve our community even more effectively.

We are confident that your participation in the FBI National Academy will not only benefit you personally, but will also bring invaluable insights and expertise back to our department. Your experiences and the knowledge you gain will not only elevate the standard of policing in Fortuna, but will also contribute to the safety and well-being of our community.

It is essential to highlight your exemplary leadership and commitment to our department. Your ability to foster a sense of unity and purpose within the Fortuna Police Department has not gone unnoticed. We are privileged to have you as our leader, and your decision to attend this training further solidifies your dedication to our community.

The Fortuna Police Employee's Association stand behind you with unwavering support as you embark on this significant journey. We are fully confident that you will make the most of this unique opportunity and return with newfound knowledge and skills that will be an asset to our department.

Please remember that we are here for you, Chief Day, throughout your time at the FBI National Academy. If you require any assistance, support, or encouragement, do not hesitate to reach out to us. We eagerly anticipate your return and the prospect of integrating your enhanced expertise into our daily operations.

May you represent the Fortuna Police Department and the Fortuna community with the same dedication, honor, and integrity that have become your hallmark.

Stay safe, Chief Day, and return with a wealth of knowledge that will benefit us all.

Sincerely,
Dennis Stevens
Association President
Fortuna Police Employee's Association
