Why are you interested in serving on the McKinleyville Municipal Advisory Committee?*

I care about my community--I own a home and a business in McKinleyville and am raising my daughter here. I want to be an active participant in the local governance process. I want to help foster our area's sustainable growth ensuring that it reflects the values of our who we are, while supporting the path towards what we can become. It is a dynamic time for McKinleyville and measured decisions are essential. I believe my service to this body would be beneficial.

Please write a brief statement describing why you are interested in serving on the MMAC.
