Why are you interested in serving on the McKinleyville Municipal Advisory Committee?*

I am eager to serve on the McKinleyville Municipal Advisory Committee because I am deeply committed to fostering inclusive, sustainable, and community-driven development. With over eight years of experience in public service and program management, I bring strong leadership, analytical skills, and a collaborative approach to addressing local issues. My expertise in accessibility and ADA compliance ensures that planning decisions reflect the needs of all community members. I am passionate about contributing to long-range planning efforts and supporting initiatives that enhance public health, safety, and welfare in McKinleyville. Serving on the MMAC would allow me to leverage my skills and experience to help shape thoughtful recommendations that align with our community's vision and values

Please write a brief statement describing why you are interested in serving on the MMAC.
