The grant funding will also support a collaboration with Teen Court and assist that organization with hosting the Parent Project Program in neighboring cities.

WHEREAS, Arcata Juvenile Diversion was awarded the Title II grant, which requires that the winning agencies collaborate with local non-profits to improve the community with a minimum of 70% of award monies allocated to a partnering non-profits.

WHEREAS, The Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act (JJDP) is the federal statute that establishes the Title II Grant Program. The U.S. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) administers the grant. The BSCC must competitively award funds to units of local government with the purpose and intent of the JJDP and California's Title II State Plan.

WHEREAS, Arcata Juvenile Diversion was awarded the Title II grant to support one of the program's major family interventions.
