

City of Eureka

Proclamation

In recognition of

Dave Silverbrand
February 7, 2023

Whereas, The City of Eureka wishes to acknowledge the dedicated service and commitment of Dave Silverbrand, to the journalism community and City of Eureka; and

Whereas, Dave Silverbrand was born August 13, 1946 in King City, California and relocated to Humboldt County in the early 1990's; and

Whereas, Dave loved meeting people from all walks of life, he knew how to bring joy through his creative storytelling; and

Whereas, Dave Silverbrand contributed to the field of journalism as a television reporter in Maine for 20 years, as a teacher of Journalism at College of the Redwoods and for over 30 years was a reporter locally for a number of news operations, most recently with North Coast News; and

Whereas, Dave Silverbrand was a legendary journalist whether conducting a one on one interview with then Vice President George H.W. Bush or authoring several books; Dave knew how to bring joy through his creative storytelling; and

Whereas, Dave Silverbrand was an active member in many community events including service on the Transportation Safety Commission for City of Eureka; and

Whereas, The City of Eureka is a better place due to the contributions of Dave Silverbrand and his commitment to professional journalism and kindness.

Now, therefore, I Mayor Kim Bergel, on behalf of the Eureka City Council, in recognition of Dave Silverbrand's many contributions to our City and its citizens, do hereby express our deep appreciation for his dedication to the City of Eureka and extend to his family our sincere condolences upon his passing.

Kim Bergel
Mayor
February 7, 2023