SUSAN PRICE, GRANT/NON-PROFIT/LOCAL GOVERNMENT SERVICES

BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Susan Price has worked throughout her career in federal and local government and the non-profit sector. Susan spent six years with the federal government as a U.S. Senate staff member for two United States Senators where she worked on a broad array of constituent, legislative, and special projects and programs. Susan spent eight and a half years in the housing and community development non-profit sector and twenty years in City and County government in both appointed and elected positions, including City Manager, Finance Director, and Director of Planning and Natural Resources, as well as eight years as an elected City Councilmember. Susan's experience spans a wide range of grant and loan funded projects and programs in various areas of federal, state, and local funding, which has resulted in over $40 million in funding secured for implementation and administration of grants and loans and other public and private financing for projects and programs. These projects and programs are in the areas of water and wastewater, housing and housing rehabilitation, public works and infrastructure, public services, law enforcement, community facilities, economic development, natural resources, finance, and planning and feasibility studies. Susan graduated with a BA in Sociology from Georgetown University, Washington, DC and a Masters in Public Administration (MPA) from California State University, Chico. Susan also holds a Certificate in Land Use and Environmental Planning from the University of California, Davis and has completed coursework in Economic Development Finance from the National Development Council in New York.
