Was I too aggressive?

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 8/14/2018 4:57:22 PM
You and I need to catch up. Aggressive has been my motto for this week.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 8/14/2018 4:57:35 PM
And no, this committee needs to actually get something done.

Me 8/14/2018 4:57:44 PM
Let's chat.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 8/14/2018 4:58:48 PM
Are you going to the AEDC's spotlight on success tonight?

Me 8/14/2018 5:01:57 PM
Know. I have to back-to-back meetings for coaches for my son soccer teams.

Had a great meeting with Chris this morning. Got some things to run by you.

Me 8/15/2018 11:11:21 AM

How many people attended the street art festival? What's your best guess?

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 8/21/2018 6:23:01 PM

i'd say between 3000 to 3200 on Saturday. I'd say another 1500 to 2500 during the week. Doesn't look like I can make the meeting tonight. Have several texts out

Mid city motor world wants to donate their carousel to the city. There would be a lot of challenges for us to accept and maintain and staff that thing. But, it would fit in Clark plaza. It would take up almost the entire thing and we would have to remove just about everything that is there, but it would fit. I envision the visitor center operating the thing.

Interested in discussing this?

Me 9/13/2018 10:06:04 AM

Riley and Swan are on a secret mission to take on-the- ground measurements of the equipment and then to draw three circles at Clarke Plaza (north, south, and central). They will be accomplishing this task by next Friday at the latest (a week from tomorrow). I want to keep this low-key for the moment, so I have told them not to share their mission with anyone. But, I will instruct them to tell you when they are going to be at Clark plaza drawing their circles so you can participate.

Me 9/13/2018 10:11:45 AM

I also just put Sherry and Lisa on another secret mission to find out everything they can about Clark plaza. When was it purchased by the city? How was it purchased? Were redevelopment funds used? Where there any restrictions built in to any type of funding? Were any private families involved? Where there any donations or foundations that would limit what we can change? Where did the statue come from, how much did it cost, and who paid for it? If you can help with any of these questions, please contact Lisa.

As brewpubs proliferate, one downtown loosens public-drinking rule

Microbreweries increasingly are becoming synonymous with downtowns. But most cities frown upon public consumption of alcohol.

Some cities, including Hamilton, OH (est. pop. 62,092), are now easing their rules on public drinking. Hamilton officials say they began to explore a new ordinance after potential tenants started asking about public imbibing.

In May, Hamilton established new rules that allow visitors to walk the streets with their drinks between noon and midnight in certain areas.

Among the guidelines for Hamilton's Downtown Outdoor Refreshment Area (DORA):

- Your to-go alcoholic beverage must be in the Official DORA Cup that specifies the name of the business before you leave the participating establishment.

- You cannot take an alcoholic beverage purchased at one liquor-serving establishment into another liquor establishment.

- You cannot take an alcoholic beverage purchased at a liquor-serving establishment into any special event area where alcohol is also sold.

- You can take a purchased alcoholic drink into a non-liquor serving establishment if the owner allows. Every business that does not sell alcohol has the right to decide if they will allow patrons to bring in DORA beverages.

- You cannot bring your own alcoholic beverage into the district.

The city says nine establishments — including brewpubs Municipal Brew Works and Quarter Barrel Brewery & Pub — are participating in the program.

Downtown merchants report additional foot traffic since the DORA rules took place, says Jacob Stone, administrative specialist at the city.

"It's been an overall win," Stone says.

Downtown establishments are selling an average of 600 cups a weekend, he says. The city sells the cups to bars and restaurants for 90 cents apiece, and bars sell them to customers for $1. The 10-cent markup covers sales tax and credit card interchange fees, Stone says.

The only cost to the city, Stone says, was the tab for installing eight new trash cans to collect the cups.

The DORA logo and rules for the refreshment area are on every cup.

A very large digital Billboard is being installed on South Broadway. It is likely to be the last digital billboard in Eureka. It was approved quite a while ago.

Anyway, the owner of the Billboard is offering for us to have a "welcome to Eureka" display on the Billboard for the 1st several weeks. Can you help me design a "welcome to Eureka" message?

Would need to be a .jpg file with a pixel ratio of 180x360.

I was just thinking nice picture of perhaps boardwalk/bay for background, eureka logo big to left or right and large 12"plus font saying welcome to eureka

Me 10/30/2018 5:28:23 PM

Sorry. That was a forward text from the owner of the billboard. I meant to copy the text, not forward it.

The billboard is 10 feet by 20 feet. Geoff recommends a minimum of 12 inch font. He also thought the stuff above.

Me 10/30/2018 5:29:56 PM

I trust you're design aesthetic more than his, but I imagine you've never worked with a 10x20 since before. Geoff says everyone designs the font too small initially.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 10/31/2018 3:07:42 PM

Just an update on the lights. It's looking like a grand total of 5 to 6000. I think we could get that number cut down if we approach some of the surrounding

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 10/31/2018 3:07:44 PM

Ok. $6K.

Me 10/31/2018 3:25:09 PM

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 10/31/2018 3:25:56 PM

Think I should bother reaching out to the surrounding businesses? Or maybe that's phase 2 covering a different section of Old Town?

Where she's holding the book would say opera Alley and the two white things coming out of the sides are hands pointing in either direction. What do you think?

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 11/27/2018 2:13:30 PM

They can be two-sided as well as adhered to buildings.

Me 11/27/2018 5:26:43 PM

I don't love it. Looks like a high school student project. But, I'm a critical jerk with stuff like this. I'll see what Swan thinks.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 11/27/2018 6:44:50 PM

Really? Luckily It's not about our own personal opinions but more of what will make a big impact. I think people will stop and stare at this sign.

The more I think about it the more I think asking for an attached Eureka marketing plan might be excessive only because part of what the city is paying for is a plan. Seems slightly unfair to request that level of work at the proposal stage. Granted I will attach a marketing plan but the plan will be beneficial to us

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 12/11/2018 1:02:16 PM

I can only imagine, is he okay?

He apologized for not listening to my hundreds of warnings. Very sincere. Says he was a fool for not seeing what was so obviously a situation that Eureka needed to deal with. A little emotional, but genuine.

Me 1/19/2019 11:00:03 AM

It was all the exact opposite of what I had expected he was gonna say to me.

Hey here's a fun project we've been working on with Scott and County, might be a cool thing for the city too.

He's using them for biz recruitment, we'll be putting a small selection of our products as well as some marketing materials in them.

Wish I could! Heading to a 5:30 meeting....and why would anyone have a 5:30 meeting?!

Me 3/27/2019 5:29:35 PM
Winners that get things done go to 5:30 meetings

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 3/27/2019 5:32:08 PM
Couples who have drinks at 5:30 together are winners

Me 3/27/2019 5:32:36 PM
Both. Both are winners.

Me 3/28/2019 12:06:59 PM
Do you advertise VC events in the Lumberjack?

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 3/28/2019 1:31:19 PM
Not the lumberjack but we do poster campus and Send Materials to their marketing dept to be put in their enewsletter.
The lumberjack is a good idea. We also do

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 3/28/2019 1:31:20 PM
KHSU.

Me 3/28/2019 1:32:31 PM
I just had lunch in arcade with an old friend. He was late and I was reading the lumber Jack. There are quite a few advertisements throughout the whole paper. I imagine it's not too expensive. I don't know how many students read the paper, but it seems like a great way to get HSU students' eyes on VC events.

Cool, I'll look into it. Any questions for Shasta county's manufacturing alliance? I was invited Out to teach them how to go about starting a made in Shasta

Meet me at visitor Center right now? I'm with Lee Oetker, director of zoo board.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/5/2019 2:02:08 PM

In a meeting. Sorry!

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:37:58 PM

Our final version of the proposal was unfortunately not the copy that was sent to the printer. Any chance we can discard the ones we dropped off on Friday and supply you all with the final version?

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:37:58 PM

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:38:01 PM

draft NOT final. 😞

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:38:02 PM

I honestly don't know how that happened, it was clearly marked third

Me 4/7/2019 12:40:09 PM

Did you send the correct electronic version? We have not yet distributed the paper copies, but we did distribute the electronic copies to the panel.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:41:13 PM

I will have an updated electronic copy sent first thing in the morning.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:41:32 PM

That's a relief the paper copies were not distributed.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:41:57 PM

Sorry about that!! For fuck sake.

Me 4/7/2019 12:41:58 PM

You haven't sent an electronic version yet?

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:42:10 PM

Yes we did.

Me 4/7/2019 12:42:27 PM

Was the electronic version the correct version?

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:42:49 PM

I'm having Jade check.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/7/2019 12:43:13 PM

Hey, tried to send you all 10 via email but the city bounced it back. I'll create a Google Link and send it sometime this evening.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/19/2019 6:31:41 PM

Was bummed I couldn't make it to the economic development summit today, too much going on. Heard your presentation was absolutely fantastic from multiple people. Thought I would pass that on. Way to go!

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/19/2019 6:31:42 PM

Me 4/20/2019 1:14:04 PM

How'd you hear that from multiple people by 6pm? I only presented two hours earlier. I guess people really resonate with positive messages about Eureka.

Alanna Powell (+1707redacted) 4/20/2019 1:19:44 PM

Good news travels fast around this town! 😊
